73rd NCPEA ANNUAL TRAINING CONFERENCE

July 15-17, 2019

Embassy Hotel & Wilmington Convention Center
Wilmington, North Carolina

The North Carolina Police Executives Association is busy working on another great conference. Conference registration will be available at the beginning of March 2019.

Join us in Wilmington, NC, and you will have the opportunity to:

- Network and build relationships with your peers
- Learn best practices and innovative technology to help you fulfill the mission of law enforcement
- Develop professional skills and obtain briefings on key current law enforcement issues

Who should attend?

- All Police Executives in North Carolina (Sergeants to Police Chiefs)
- Police Officers who are up for a Sergeant's Promotion

Why should I attend the conference? Issues are more challenging than ever. From community policing concerns to ever-changing technology, you, as a police executive, are facing challenges daily. NCPEA will bring together some of the best instructors and presenters who will be addressing emerging issues and offering real solutions. In addition, you will have the opportunity to view the latest technologies, innovations, and equipment to improve the overall performance of your agency. Registration will open March 1, 2019.
